Pastoral Notes

Dear Cornerstone Family,

For those of you who may have missed the big news coming out of the Shurden household, let me take a moment to get you up to speed. Much to our surprise, Christy (my wife) and I recently found out that we're expecting a fifth child. Yes, you read that right. #5! And, yes, we're as surprised as you. Check that: we're more surprised than you! Thankfully, God has given us a deep love for children, so it didn't take very long to start getting excited about a new little Shurden (Due date is Dec. 30th).

Just as the excitement was taking hold, some difficult news broke. We learned last week that the prenatal blood screening test indicated a high probability of a chromosome abnormality in the baby. To be more specific, the doctor said there's a 90% chance the baby will be Down Syndrome.

That news knocked the wind out of us.

After the appointment, we took the evening and next day to prayerfully let this news sink in. We took time to speak with our kids, parents, and a few close friends. We asked questions. We worried. We cried. Then, we'd collect ourselves and be fine for a while. And then something would be thought or said, and the cycle of questions and worries would start back over.

Thankfully, with each passing day, the questions and worries lessen, as we learn (again and again) not to face tomorrow's troubles with today's grace. Jesus tells us not to be anxious about tomorrow for a reason. For starters, we're not there yet. Moreover, we're not even promised tomorrow (Matthew 6:34). This is why we must do what Christians have done for centuries, drawing near to the throne of grace in our time of need knowing that His mercies will be new each morning (Lamentations 3:23; Hebrews 4:16).

During an anxious season a few years ago, I penned what I've come to call the five R's.

- Remember God's promises (Isaiah 26:4)
- Rest in God's providence (Romans 8:28)
- Redeemed by God's love (Romans 8:37-39)
- Release all worldly fears in prayer (I Peter 5:7)
- Relax into God's perfect peace (Philippians 4:6-7)

As you might expect, Christy and I revisited these precious realities this week when we sensed our heads falling below the water line. As we meditated, talked and prayed, we were slowly lifted out of the waves until we finally regained our footing on the Rock of our salvation. We'll undoubtedly be rehearsing these truths again and again as the waves of fear and sadness come in the days ahead. On that note, I'd ask you to pray for us in five specific ways:

1. Pray for a healthy baby.
2. Pray for unwavering trust in God and ever-increasing peace and resolve in whatever path He has for our family.
3. Pray for wisdom on decisions we have to make on future testing, since the most confirming test also has increased health risk for the baby. We've got a few weeks to think and pray about it before we have to make a decision.
4. Pray for God's good and perfect will to be done.
5. Most of all, pray for God's glory to be put on beautiful display no matter what!

We're so grateful to be a part of a church family that loves us. We're especially thankful right now for the opportunity to lean on your love and be assured of your prayers on our behalf.

Love you all.
Your servant,
Nate

Worship is a response to the love of God that brings us out of darkness into his light. The rhythm and flow of the service reflects this present reality as God calls his people and reveals himself, forgives their sins, teaches them from his Word, the Bible, feeds them, and then sends them out to live what they have learned.

This is the pattern of his love in redeeming and saving his people.

Prelude, Announcements, and Preparation

GOD CALLS HIS PEOPLE AND REVEALS HIMSELF

God calls His people to worship and come before Him. The Creator of all things reveals Himself through His Word and calls us into His presence.

Introit—Give Thanks to God the Lord, Vs I

The musical score is written for piano in 4/4 time. It consists of four systems of music, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Give thanks to God the Lord; up - on His Name now call. Make known a - mong the peo - ple on earth what He has done for all. Sing praise to Him, now sing; His won - drous acts pro - claim. Re - jice, all you who seek the Lord; come glo - ry in His Name." The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and chords that support the vocal melody.

New Testament Reading—2 John 1:1-6

¹ The elder to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth, and not only I, but also all who know the truth, ² because of the truth that abides in us and will be with us forever:

³ Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us, from God the Father and from Jesus Christ the Father's Son, in truth and love.

⁴ I rejoiced greatly to find some of your children walking in the truth, just as we were commanded by the Father. ⁵ And now I ask you, dear lady—not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another. ⁶ And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it.

Elder: This is the Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

GOD CALLS HIS PEOPLE TO CONFESSION, REPENTANCE & RECONCILIATION

The People of God respond to His Word by confessing their sins, repenting of their sinful ways, and seeking God's favor through the reconciling work of Jesus, the Son of God.

Sung Preparation—Hear My Prayer (from Psalm 86)

You, O Lord, are good and for - giv - ing. Give ear to my prayer.

Save my life for you are the on - ly God. For to you I cry.

Congregational Prayer for Confession of Sin—from Psalm 51:I-13

Pastor: Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love;
according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions.

All: Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin!
For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me.

Pastor: Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight, so that you may be justified in your words and blameless in your judgment.
Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity,
and in sin did my mother conceive me.

All: Behold, you delight in truth in the inward being,
and you teach me wisdom in the secret heart.

Pastor: Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean;
wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.
Let me hear joy and gladness;
let the bones that you have broken rejoice.

All: Hide your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities.

Pastor: Create in me a clean heart, O God,
and renew a right spirit within me.
Cast me not away from your presence,
and take not your Holy Spirit from me.

All: Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and uphold me with a willing spirit.

Pastor: Then I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will return to you.

Silent Prayers of Confession

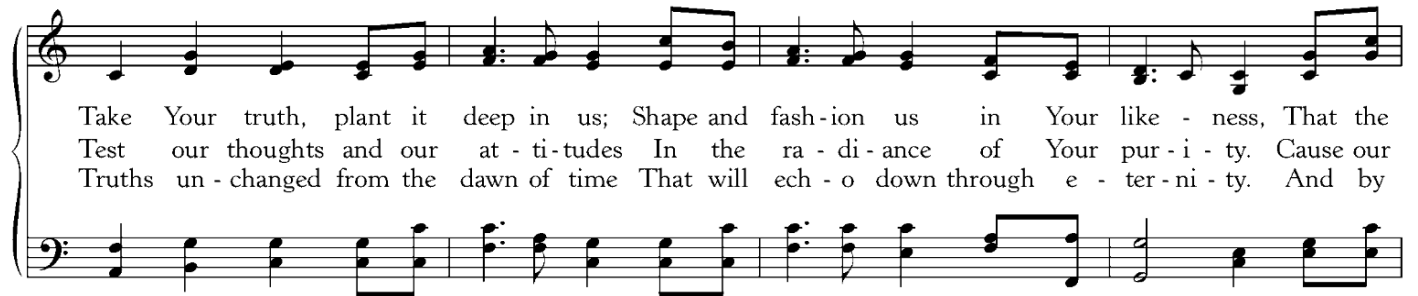

Assurance of Pardon—Ezekiel 36:25-28

²⁵ I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols I will cleanse you. ²⁶ And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. ²⁷ And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes and be careful to obey my rules. ²⁸ You shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers, and you shall be my people, and I will be your God.

GOD TEACHES US THROUGH HIS WORD

The Reading of the Word—Psalm 25

To you, O LORD, I lift up my soul.

² O my God, in you I trust;
let me not be put to shame;
let not my enemies exult over me.

³ Indeed, none who wait for you shall be put to shame;
they shall be ashamed who are wantonly treacherous.

⁴ Make me to know your ways, O LORD;
teach me your paths.

⁵ Lead me in your truth and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation;
for you I wait all the day long.

⁶ Remember your mercy, O LORD, and your steadfast love, for they have been from of old.

⁷ Remember not the sins of my youth or my transgressions;
according to your steadfast love remember me,
for the sake of your goodness, O LORD!

⁸ Good and upright is the LORD;
therefore he instructs sinners in the way.

⁹ He leads the humble in what is right, and teaches the humble his way.

¹⁰ All the paths of the LORD are steadfast love and faithfulness, for those who keep his covenant and his testimonies.

¹¹ For your name's sake, O LORD, pardon my guilt, for it is great.

¹² Who is the man who fears the LORD?
Him will he instruct in the way that he should choose.

¹³ His soul shall abide in well-being,
and his offspring shall inherit the land.

¹⁴ The friendship of the LORD is for those who fear him,
and he makes known to them his covenant.

¹⁵ My eyes are ever toward the LORD,
for he will pluck my feet out of the net.

¹⁶ Turn to me and be gracious to me,
for I am lonely and afflicted.

¹⁷ The troubles of my heart are enlarged;
bring me out of my distresses.

¹⁸ Consider my affliction and my trouble,
and forgive all my sins.

¹⁹ Consider how many are my foes,
and with what violent hatred they hate me.

²⁰ Oh, guard my soul, and deliver me!
Let me not be put to shame, for I take refuge in you.

²¹ May integrity and uprightness preserve me, for I wait for you.

²² Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles.

Leader: The grass withers, the flower fades;
All: But the Word of our God will stand forever.

Profession of Faith—The Apostles' Creed

We believe in God, the Father Almighty,
the Creator of heaven and earth,

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived of the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended into hell. On the third day He rose again from the dead.
He ascended into Heaven and now sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, from whence He shall come to judge the living and the dead.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic* church,
The communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
The resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

* "Catholic" refers to the universal church of God's people throughout all time and from all places

THE SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

God offers to His people the gift of communion with Him through the grace of the sacrament and we respond in thanksgiving.

Words of Institution and the Lord's Table

Guidelines for the Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper is the family meal for Christians. We invite all baptized Christians who are members of a congregation that proclaims the gospel, and who are at peace with God and with their neighbor, and who seek strength to live more faithfully for Christ to join us.

If you are not a Christian, or if you are not prepared to share in this meal, we encourage you to spend this time in prayer. You can find some sample prayers on the next page. We hope that this time is helpful to you as you consider your relationship with Jesus Christ and with His people, the church.

At Cornerstone, we come forward to receive communion. You may take the bread at the first table and then proceed to either side for the wine/grape juice.

Prayers for Those Not Taking the Lord's Supper

If you are not able to partake in the Lord's Supper today, please use this time to meditate on one of the following prayers.

Prayer for Those Searching for Truth. Lord Jesus, you claim to be the way, the truth, and the life. Grant that I might be undaunted by the cost of following you as I consider the reasons for doing so. If what you claim is true, please guide me, teach me, and open me to the reality of who you are. Give me an understanding of you that is coherent, convincing, and that leads to the life you promise. Amen.

Prayer of Belief. Lord Jesus Christ, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever dared admit, but through you I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt on the cross, taking what I deserved in order to offer me complete forgiveness. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior and Lord. Amen.

Prayer of Commitment. Lord Jesus, you have called us to follow you in baptism and in a life of committed discipleship through membership in your church. Grant that I may take the necessary steps to be one with your people, and live in the fullness of your Spirit. Amen.

And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

GOD SENDS HIS PEOPLE OUT TO BE LIGHT IN THE DARKNESS

After calling His people into His presence, forgiving their sins, instructing them in His Word, and providing a foretaste of the marriage supper of the Lamb, God sends His people into the world to show His light in the darkness.

Benediction—2 Corinthians 3:17-18

¹⁷ Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. ¹⁸ And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit. Amen.
