Pastoral Notes

When you think of spiritual growth or change, what would you say makes the most difference? There's lots of potential good (right) answers. But when I look back on the seasons of the most significant spiritual growth, there's always been a loving person delivering God's Word to my heart. It really is that simple, and that profound.

On the surface, that may sound like a defense of pastoral ministry or the activity of preaching and, in a sense, it is. But that's not the point I'm making right now. For interestingly, the people who have made the biggest spiritual impact in my life have only occasionally been pastors.

This week in staff meeting we took time to personally apply the first point of last week's sermon from Psalm 44, namely, that God's ordinary means of passing on the faith to the next generation is the family of faith, the church. I asked each staff member to tell us about someone in their past who made a big spiritual impact. We named mothers, Sunday School teachers, youth volunteers, and, yes, a pastor or two. But it was noteworthy that for almost all of us, the single biggest spiritual influencers were ordinary Christians who loved us enough to minister the truth of God's Word to where we needed it most.

At staff meeting, I mentioned the name Chuck Thompson. He helped lead the 3rd-5th grade boys' class on Wednesday nights at my home church in Laurel, MS. I remember one night in particular. Chuck told us he'd had a long week and didn't have much time to prepare a lesson, but that he wanted to teach us about thanksgiving.

He had each boy—probably 4 or 5 of us—retell all the events of our day. From the moment we woke up, to the moment we stepped into the room for Bible study that night. As we painstakingly rehearsed the day's activities, Chuck would stop us and say, "How can you give thanks to God for that?" From brushing our teeth to playing catch in the backyard, Chuck was calling us to pause, consider, and give thanks to God.

Little did we know, he was teaching us the life transformative truth of I Thessalonians 5:18, "Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you." The teaching was so simple. It was even unprepared! But thirty years later I remember it and am still learning the lesson of it. In fact, I'm sharing the lesson with you! Chuck has gone on to be with the Lord, but the impact of Chuck's ministry remains with me to this day. That's how God loves to work.

Who has God used in your life to make a spiritual difference? Go ahead and stop right now and give thanks for them. Then, for God's glory alone, ask the Lord to use you to lovingly minister the truth of God's Word to someone else. Trust me, that's the kind of prayer He's inclined to answer.

Worship is a response to the love of God that brings us out of darkness into his light. The rhythm and flow of the service reflects this present reality as God calls his people and reveals himself, forgives their sins, teaches them from his Word, the Bible, feeds them, and then sends them out to live what they have learned.

This is the pattern of his love in redeeming and saving his people.

Prelude, Announcements, and Preparation

GOD CALLS HIS PEOPLE AND REVEALS HIMSELF

God calls His people to worship and come before Him. The Creator of all things reveals Himself through His Word and calls us into His presence.

All: From the rising of the sun to its setting, the name of the LORD is to be praised!

New Testament Reading—I Thessalonians 5:1-11

Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need to have anything written to you. ²For you yourselves are fully aware that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. ³While people are saying, “There is peace and security,” then sudden destruction will come upon them as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. ⁴But you are not in darkness, brothers, for that day to surprise you like a thief. ⁵For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness. ⁶So then let us not sleep, as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober. ⁷For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk, are drunk at night. ⁸But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. ⁹For God has not destined us for wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁰who died for us so that whether we are awake or asleep we might live with him. ¹¹Therefore encourage one another and build one another up, just as you are doing.

Elder: This is the Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

GOD CALLS HIS PEOPLE TO CONFESSION, REPENTANCE & RECONCILIATION

The People of God respond to His Word by confessing their sins, repenting of their sinful ways, and seeking God's favor through the reconciling work of Jesus, the Son of God.

Sung Preparation—Hear My Prayer (from Psalm 86)

Hear my prayer, O Lord, and an-swer me. I am poor and need-y.
You, O Lord, are good and for-giv-ing. Give ear to my prayer.

Save my life for you are the on-ly God. For to you I cry.
Teach your way so that I may walk in your truth; fix my heart to fear You.

You, O Lord, are full of mer-cy. Grac-ious are you, O God. Slow to an-ger abound-ing in faith-ful-ness. Turn to me, de-liv-er me. Save me in Your love.

Congregational Prayer of Confession of Sin—based on Matthew 6:25-34

Pastor: Lord, we come confessing that we are anxious about our lives,
about what we eat and drink,
about clothes and provisions.

All: We forget that life is more than food
and the body is more than the clothes we wear.

Pastor: You feed the birds of the air who neither sow nor reap.
You clothe the lilies of the field who neither toil nor spin.

All: We are of more value than they,
yet we are anxious about earthly things.

Pastor: Our lack of faith causes us to question Your provision, O Father.

All: The unbeliever seeks after providing food and drink and clothes, yet it is You, our heavenly Father who knows that we need them.

Pastor: Give us the grace to seek after Your kingdom and Your righteousness, and to rest in the assurance that You provide for our needs.

All: Help us not to be anxious about tomorrow.

Silent Prayers of Confession

Assurance of Pardon—from Ephesians 1:11-14

11 In Christ we have obtained an inheritance, having been predestined according to the purpose of him who works all things according to the counsel of his will, 12 so that we who were the first to hope in Christ might be to the praise of his glory. 13 In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, 14 who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory.

GOD TEACHES US THROUGH HIS WORD

The Reading of the Word—Psalm 90

LORD, you have been our dwelling place
in all generations.

² Before the mountains were brought forth,
or ever you had formed the earth and the world,
from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

³ You return man to dust
and say, "Return, O children of man!

⁴ For a thousand years in your sight
are but as yesterday when it is past, or as a watch in the night.

⁵ You sweep them away as with a flood; they are like a dream,
like grass that is renewed in the morning;
⁶ in the morning it flourishes and is renewed;
in the evening it fades and withers.
⁷ For we are brought to an end by your anger;
by your wrath we are dismayed.
⁸ You have set our iniquities before you,
our secret sins in the light of your presence.
⁹ For all our days pass away under your wrath;
we bring our years to an end like a sigh.
¹⁰ The years of our life are seventy,
or even by reason of strength eighty;
yet their span is but toil and trouble;
they are soon gone, and we fly away.
¹¹ Who considers the power of your anger,
and your wrath according to the fear of you?
¹² So teach us to number our days
that we may get a heart of wisdom.
¹³ Return, O LORD! How long?
Have pity on your servants!
¹⁴ Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love,
that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
¹⁵ Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted us,
and for as many years as we have seen evil.
¹⁶ Let your work be shown to your servants,
and your glorious power to their children.
¹⁷ Let the favor of the LORD our God be upon us,
and establish the work of our hands upon us;
yes, establish the work of our hands!

Leader: The grass withers, the flower fades;

All: But the Word of our God will stand forever.

Profession of Faith—The Apostles' Creed

We believe in God, the Father Almighty,
the Creator of heaven and earth,

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived of the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended into hell. On the third day He rose again from the dead.
He ascended into Heaven
and now sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, from whence He shall come to judge the living and the dead.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic* church,
The communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
The resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

* "Catholic" refers to the universal church of God's people throughout all time and from all places

THE SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

God offers to His people the gift of communion with Him through the grace of the sacrament and we respond in thanksgiving.

Words of Institution and the Lord's Table

Guidelines for the Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper is the family meal for Christians. We invite all baptized Christians who are members of a congregation that proclaims the gospel, and who are at peace with God and with their neighbor, and who seek strength to live more faithfully for Christ to join us.

If you are not a Christian, or if you are not prepared to share in this meal, we encourage you to spend this time in prayer. You can find some sample prayers on the next page. We hope that this time is helpful to you as you consider your relationship with Jesus Christ and with His people, the church.

At Cornerstone, we come forward to receive communion. You may take the bread at the first table and then proceed to either side for the wine/grape juice.

Prayers for Those Not Taking the Lord's Supper

If you are not able to partake in the Lord's Supper today, please use this time to meditate on one of the following prayers.

Prayer for Those Searching for Truth. Lord Jesus, you claim to be the way, the truth, and the life. Grant that I might be undaunted by the cost of following you as I consider the reasons for doing so. If what you claim is true, please guide me, teach me, and open me to the reality of who you are. Give me an understanding of you that is coherent, convincing, and that leads to the life you promise. Amen.

Prayer of Belief. Lord Jesus Christ, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever dared admit, but through you I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt on the cross, taking what I deserved in order to offer me complete forgiveness. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior and Lord. Amen.

Prayer of Commitment. Lord Jesus, you have called us to follow you in baptism and in a life of committed discipleship through membership in your church. Grant that I may take the necessary steps to be one with your people, and live in the fullness of your Spirit. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving and Intercession

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name.

And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen

The Masculine Mandate, Richard D. Phillips, $12

What does it mean to be a man made in the image of God? And what does it mean to be a man under God's grace, called according to His purpose? This book seeks to cut through the cultural confusion, highlight God's mandate for men, and encourage readers to repentance and renewal. Phillips provides clear biblical instruction for husbands, fathers, and sons as he carefully examines important truths from Scripture.
